

Corporate Affiliate Membership

With more than 4,500 members, 23,000 magazine subscribers and 20,000 individuals participating in programs and events annually, the Boston Society of Architects (BSA) is the largest chapter of the American Institute of Architects (AIA).

Corporate affiliate membership is designed to help building-industry companies work more closely with architects.

Promote your services or products to architects and other building-industry professionals year-round.

The BSA is unique in that it brings together building-industry professionals through a variety of committees and taskforces, networking events and special programs, including the Build Boston convention and tradeshow in November, and our Residential Design and Construction convention and tradeshow in April.

To become a member, contact our membership department at 617-951-1433 x228 or membership@architects.org—or fill out the form on the back of this flyer. For more information, visit architects.org/membership.
