About the Boston Society of Architects

The Boston Society of Architects (BSA) is committed to professional development for its members, advocacy on behalf of great design, and sharing an appreciation for the built environment with the public at large. Established in 1867, the BSA today consists of more than 4,000 members and produces a diverse array of programs and publications, including ArchitectureBoston Expo and ArchitectureBoston magazine. A chapter of the American Institute of Architects, the BSA is a nonprofit, professional-service organization. Its partner organization, the BSA Foundation, supports the civic and public outreach of the architectural community. For more information, visit architects.org or architects.org/foundation.

About BSA Design Awards

Each year the BSA, often in collaboration with other organizations, sponsors awards programs to honor design excellence in Massachusetts, throughout New England, and elsewhere. All winners are announced at the annual BSA Design Awards Gala.

2014 Design Awards Categories

Housing Design Awards; Small Firms Design Awards; Healthcare Facilities Design Awards; Unbuilt Architecture and Design; Honor Awards for Design Excellence; BSA Award of Honor; Harleston Parker Medal; and People's Choice Award

Award Hierarchy

Honor Awards: the highest awards. These projects are the "best of the best." Each one elevated the hearts and minds of our juries by expressing both technical and aesthetic design excellence.

Awards: admirable and innovative work that is successfully executed from concept through construction.

Citations: those projects that caught the jury's eye for design, technical, humanitarian, or other reasons but were not formally awarded.

BSA Award of Honor

This honor is given to individuals whose lifetime contributions to the profession and to the BSA have been uncommonly profound.

The Harleston Parker Medal

The Harleston Parker Medal award was established in 1921 by J. Harleston Parker in memory of his father. The first award was granted by the BSA in 1923. The intent of the award is to acknowledge the most beautiful piece of architecture, building, monument, or structure within the City of Boston or Metropolitan Parks District limits.

People's Choice Award

An online competition organized by the BSA and hosted by Boston.com where members of the public go head-to-head with the 2014 Harleston Parker Medal jury to decide which among this year's finalists is the most beautiful building in Boston. The winner is announced at the BSA Design Awards Gala.
