Harleston Parker Medal

Deadline: March 22, 2019

Co-sponsored by: City of Boston

Established in 1921 in memory of Boston architect J. Harleston Parker, this highest honor awarded by the Boston Society of Architects/AIA recognizes “the most beautiful piece of architecture, building, monument or structure within the City or Metropolitan Parks District limits.”

What projects are eligible?

This annual honor recognizes “the single most beautiful building or other structure” built in the metropolitan Boston area in the past 10 years.

Projects of any scale, program, or level of public visibility—new or rehabilitated—are eligible.

Nominated projects from prior years that have not been recognized will continue to be considered until they are ruled out by the 10-years-from-completion eligibility requirement.

Projects that have been honored in past years and work by jurors or by their firms are ineligible.

Who is eligible to nominate?

Anyone is eligible to nominate. You may nominate your own work or any other work.

Where must eligible projects be located?

Projects must be located in the metropolitan Boston area, which comprises: Arlington, Belmont, Boston, Braintree, Brookline, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Dedham, Dover, Everett, Hingham, Hull, Lynn, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Nahant, Needham, Newton, Quincy, Revere, Saugus, Somerville, Stoneham, Swampscott, Wakefield, Waltham, Watertown, Wellesley, Weston, Weymouth, Winchester, Winthrop, and Woburn.

When must have eligible projects been built?

Projects must have been completed between December 31, 2008 and December 31, 2018.

How do I submit my project?

Send your nomination to awards@architects.org with “2019 Harleston Parker” as the subject line. Please include:

- Project name
- Project location (street address, city)
- Architect (if known)

How much is the entry fee?

Nominating projects for this honor is free.

About the BSA Design Awards

Each year the Boston Society of Architects/AIA (BSA/AIA), often in collaboration with other organizations, sponsors awards programs to honor design excellence in Massachusetts, throughout New England, and beyond. By recognizing remarkable achievements in architecture, the design community highlights exemplary projects that serve as inspiration for practitioners. Equally important, these awards elevate the potential for positive impact that architecture has on quality of life for everyone.
