

BSA SUBSCRIBER MEMBERSHIP

What is an AIA Subscriber Membership?

A subscriber membership has been designed for active AIA members of another AIA chapter, who wishes to also be affiliated more closely with the Boston Society of Architects (BSA).

The BSA is one of the largest chapters of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) with nearly 4,000 members and 7,500 annual program attendees.

Participating in programs and BSA Knowledge Communities connects Subscriber members with the industry's best and brightest. Read about BSA Knowledge Communities at architects.org/committees.

What does membership bring?

Get involved outside of your home chapter and grow your Greater Boston network. As an active AIA member of another AIA Chapter you can enjoy:

- Advance mailings about BSA awards programs and competitions
- Free or discounted admission and invitations to BSA tours, exhibits, lectures and programs
- Membership pricing on selected BSA programs and awards

A year of individual membership as a BSA Subscriber is $69.00 for the year beginning 9/1 – 8/31. Your membership will be under your own name and will not constitute a “firm membership” for your own firm or BSA member pricing for your employees. Not all events, programs or entrance fees will be eligible for member pricing, so check with BSA staff beforehand.
