

The Boston Society of Architects (BSA) is one of the most active and influential chapters of the American Institute of Architects (AIA). We are strong advocates for local architects, A/E/C professionals and for communities creating good design all across the Greater Boston area.

What is Professional affiliate membership?

Professional affiliate membership is ideal for industry professionals and design firm staff members. Professional affiliate members are an integral part of the BSA's broad network.

The BSA brings together individuals working in the building industry—including human resources professionals, marketing and finance professionals; landscape architects; interior designers; lawyers and consultants—through an array of networking opportunities and special events.

Benefits of Membership

Member pricing:

- 50 percent off BSA Space room rentals, including our waterfront BSA gallery space.
- 25 percent off AIA Contract Documents
- Discounted advertising packages on Homeowner's Project Handbook, architects.org, and Currents e-newsletter
- Discounted tickets to BSA programs and events
- Discounted tickets for seasonal Architecture Cruises
- Your individual participation in BSA awards, programs and competitions, including at ABX, will be priced at the member rate

Member recognition and inclusion in the following ways:

- Inclusion of your name in the online directory of BSA members
- Professional affiliates who run their own business can purchase listings in the member section of the BSA's annual Homeowner's Project Handbook
- Peer access to more than 40 BSA committees, task forces and networks
- Access to members-only directories on architects.org
- Advance mailings about awards, programs and competitions
- Free notary services at our Boston office

We hope to see you at one of our events soon!
