editorial content focused on keeping the profession strong, creating thought leadership, and in providing a forum for conversation, discovery, and debate about design. The BSA/AIA, together with the BSA Foundation, make up the Boston Foundation for Architecture (AIA), a diverse community committed to improving the quality of life for everyone through architecture and design. By hosting professional and youth education programs, fostering community engagement and membership networks, and initiating civic transformation, the BSA is making this a region where architects thrive and communities flourish.
