Boston Society of Architects/AIA announces 2022 Board and Governance Committee Leaders.

(Boston, November 4, 2021)–The Boston Society of Architects/AIA (BSA/AIA) is pleased to announce the newly elected 2022 Board and governance committee leaders.

The BSA/AIA Board is composed of 20 members. Elections are held annually. The terms of all elected officers other than the President and First Vice-President/President-elect are three years. The terms for President, First Vice-President, and Past-President are one year.

Incoming 2022 BSA President Anda French AIA sends her congratulations to the new slate of leaders, “I am pleased to join this impressive group in the year ahead. We have an exciting job in front of us, and I am honored to work with such esteemed colleagues working across scholarship, advocacy, and practice. Outgoing president Greg Minott AIA has set a standard for leadership during his term that we will build on in the coming year. I look forward to partnering with the Board and entire membership on the work to come.”

About the Boston Society of Architects/AIA

The Boston Society of Architects/AIA (BSA/AIA) is the eastern Massachusetts chapter of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) and is New England's largest building industry association. Established in 1867, the BSA is the second largest chapter of the AIA with more than 4,500 members. The BSA is dedicated to strengthening the profession by producing a diverse array of programs and editorial content to push thought leadership in architecture and providing forums for conversation, discovery, and debate about design. The BSA community is committed to improving the quality of life for everyone through architecture and design. By hosting professional and youth education programs, fostering community engagement and membership networks, and initiating civic transformation, the BSA is making this a region where architects thrive and communities flourish.
