

Community Volunteering

LWA is committed to investing in our community as well as the architectural practice at large through volunteering. Employees are encouraged to participate in various efforts that do not interfere with the full-time work at the office and may take up to 16 hours of paid time to volunteer with community organizations and/or pro-bono projects of their choice.