The Architecture of Time Photography Exhibition

On view: January 10, 2020 – May 15, 2020

(Boston, MA) The Architecture of Time photography exhibition at BSA Space will feature diverse perspectives connecting the built or designed environment with time or history. Thirty-six photographers will be represented in the exhibition.

The Architecture of Time is the second in a series of rotating photography exhibitions that will take place at BSA Space in the Storefront Gallery and second floor conference rooms. Exhibitions are expected to change every six months and will feature a roster of photographers exploring themes related to architecture, the built environment, and the power of design to transform and improve people's lives.

The Architecture of Time was juried by Meghan Melvin, Christine O'Donnell, and Peter Vanderwarker. All displayed artwork is for sale throughout the duration of the exhibition.

The opening reception will take place at 6:00 pm on Friday, January 10 at BSA Space.
